8. MEMBER DISCOUNTS

The UCSW has organised discounts for members on a range of products:

- Membership to C³ It's benefits include insurance – see home page of our website www.ucsw.org for more details or join by completing the enclosed leaflet.

Over the last few years, UCSW members have been asking if the Union can offer insurance. As a result UCSW has been looking at the different insurances available for country sports people. It did not want to add compulsory insurance on to UCSW membership in a time of financial uncertainty, thus incurring additional costs for its members who did not want extra insurance. Optional membership to C³, which includes insurance, is the best way to meet UCSW member needs.

- Utility Warehouse Discount Club – Now that the New Year is here and extra financial pressures are on us all, why not reduce your utility bills, save on your shopping – these are just a few benefits from joining the UWDC. Please see the enclosed leaflet for more information and don't forget to quote our reference number: E62770 if you join up – this helps us too!
- Webury.com – UCSW Trade member – is offering UCSW members a 10% discount for items on their website www.webury.com. To find out how to take up this offer email the UCSW: office@ucsw.org. Webury.com is a family run business, deeply rooted in the countryside. They claim to be Europe's largest Driza-Bone ® stockists, and their expertise in Wellington Boots is second to none, with prestige brands Aigle (including the Equestrian ranges) and Le Chameau. Quality items to suit Gardeners to Gundogs, Campers to Coffee-holics, Foodies to Fashionistas, "there is something for everyone".
- Special rates for websites, logos, brochures and photography from EquineIT.com for UCSW members. Logos from only £75 and websites from only £250. Contact Ian Piper on 07811 450158 and mention that you are a UCSW member.

If you sell a product which you think might appeal to your fellow UCSW members and would like to offer a discount, please contact us in the UCSW Office to discuss (01295 712719).

We would like to thank all our members for their support through their membership, fundraising and donations, without which the UCSW would not be here. Please encourage your friends who are involved in country sports, whether workers or supporters, to join us – together we can be stronger...
